BESKRIVNING

Bishop & Miller present their Militaria & Medals auction, offering 182 lots spanning four centuries of military history. The medals run from an 1823 Sadborow Yeomanry medal and Victorian campaign awards for the Crimea, South Africa, Egypt and China through to First and Second World War groups. Highlights include a Knight Bachelor, CBE and KPM group of twelve, a First World War Military Medal group to the Royal Engineers and a Second World War RAF casualty group to a DFC recipient.

Arms and armour include a 16th century burgonet, a 17th century swept hilt rapier, a cased Colt 1849 pocket revolver and 19th century percussion pistols, alongside deactivated firearms such as a Thompson M1928 A1 and a Mauser M712 Schnellfeuer. Swords range from a Pattern 1796 infantry officer's sword to Russian and French cavalry and artillery sabres, with bayonets and daggers also on offer.

Uniform and headdress includes a Black Watch full dress feather bonnet, a Royal Welch Fusiliers scarlet full dress tunic and an attributed 1930s chief constable's full dress uniform. The sale also features a series of original uniform paintings by Bryan Fosten, a grouping of Second World War Commando material, cap badges, formation signs, trench maps and wartime ephemera.

Welcome to the auction!
